Minutes of the General Membership Meeting The Association of Applied Paleontological Sciences February 7, 2020 - Tucson, Arizona

The meeting was called to order by President John Issa at 6:45 P.M. in the north ballroom of the University of Arizona student union. As this meeting is held in conjunction with the annual banquet and scholarship auction there was no membership roll available. It again was well attended with 140 banquet tickets sold.

The reading of the last meeting minutes was suspended - they can be found on our website.

Pete Larson of the Black Hills Institute commented briefly on the condition of Robert Farrar who was recently hospitalized in Tucson.

President Issa introduced the following persons for a presentation:

Dr. Luis M. Chiappe of the Los Angeles County Museum

Dr. John Nudds of the University of Manchester (U.K.)

Terry Manning also from the University of Manchester.

A presentation was made by Terry Manning and Dr. Nudds of a dinosaur egg from Argentina containing an exposed embryo prepared by Terry Manning. It was accepted by Dr. Chiappe on behalf of the people of Argentina.

Neal Larson spoke about our scholarship program and its recent success. We had 13 applicants for 2 of our scholarships. The results will be posted in our next newsletter.

The following officers were elected for 2-year terms:

Craig Kissick as President

Rick Rotator as Treasurer

The following members were elected to the Board of Directors for 2-year terms:

George Ast, Tom Caggiano, Neal Larson, Brook Ricard and Robert Bowen was elected to fill the remainder of Craig Kissick's two-year term. John Issa, as the Junior Past President also becomes a member of the board, his term to run concurrent with the newly elected president.

The meeting was closed by acclamation and was followed by our annual charity auction the results of which will be posted in our newsletter.

Respectfully submitted,

Nathaniel 'Sandy' Ludlum, Secretary
